EXAMPLES OF WORK SITES (NOT SERVICE-LEARNING)

* Bread delivery

* Book store (owned by local behavioral health agency)

Perry State Forest (marking ATV trails, clearing equine trails, litter pick-up, cleaning tires out of spillway)

* Perry County Historical Society's Jacob Miller's Tavern (demo and removal of woodworking, etc.)

Rescue dog walking and dog food pick-up

As incentive, I double hourly credit for labor-intense sites

* W.H.I.N.N.Y. horse rescue farm

Perry County Transit (cleaning out vehicles)

Perry County Fair (working a gate, litter clean-up and helping PC Waste Reduction & Recycling)

Archival work (probate and juvenile)

*Monday Creek clean-up in New Straitsville

Local churches, schools and parks (mulching, painting curbs, cleaning, litter pick-up, etc.)

Scraping and painting playground equipment, shelter house, etc.

youths' favorite labor sites*

EXAMPLES OF SERVICE-LEARNING ASSIGNMENTS

Essay Writing (What Does Success Mean to You? / Are You Labeled? / Family / A Scary Event You'll Never Forget / If You Could Change Something in Your Community / Technology)

News & Response packets (local history and contemporary issues)

Youth receive normal hourly credit for these – with News & Response, Essays and blood donation, I give higher credit as incentive

Money Management (I used a DVD and worksheets/handouts) – PREP training

Resume Building

Documentaries (local history and contemporary issues)

Blood Donation for eligible youth, parental consent forms for 16 yr olds and restrictions for youth who have been incarcerated (persons who have been detained or incarcerated in a facility such as juvenile detention, lockup or prison for more than 72 consecutive hours cannot donate blood for 12 mos. from the date of the last incarceration – I have experienced juveniles being turned away for ANY amount of time of being incarcerated)

INDEPENDENT SITES (RARELY USE, always have verification from someone besides kid or parent)

Churches (rec center) / truck pulls / pantry work
