REPRESENTATIVES TO GATHER FOR SITE VISIT WITH THE NATIONAL REENTRY
RESOURCE CENTER ON FEBRUARY 17

COLUMBUS – An interbranch group of government leaders and juvenile justice stakeholders will come together for a site visit with the National Reentry Resource Center on Feb. 17, 2016, at 9 a.m., at the Supreme Court of Ohio’s Thomas J. Moyer Ohio Judicial Center.

What: Site Visit with National Reentry Resource Center to discuss improving outcomes for youth

When: Wednesday, February 17, 2016
9:00 a.m.

Where: The Supreme Court of Ohio’s Thomas J. Moyer Ohio Judicial Center
65 S. Front St., 2nd Floor
Columbus, OH 43215

The Center is a secure building, and all visitors must present photo identification and successfully complete the physical screen process before being admitted to the building. Please click here for directions and parking information.

Ohio is one of eight states selected to participate in a site visit with the Council of State Governments Justice Center’s National Reentry Resource Center (NRRC). The site visit will focus on:

- Research that demonstrates effectiveness in reducing recidivism and improving outcomes for youth arrested and in contact with the juvenile justice system
- Best practices for measuring recidivism and other youth outcomes and using this data to guide system policy and resource allocation
- The opportunity to receive federally funded technical assistance from the NRRC to develop a statewide plan to improve outcomes for youth
